Reader's Advisory

Glasgow School of Art Library: Here is an update on the status of the Library at the Glasgow School of Art. The staff has compiled an initial 'wish list' of specific titles that hold particular relevance to its history, alumni, and learning, teaching and research activities. The list is now publicly available here: Mackintosh Library Collections Wants List. Any help you can offer in circulating this initial list to interested parties would be hugely appreciated, or perhaps if you hold any duplicates and would like to donate them to the library, please contact Duncan Chappell at d.chappell@gsa.ac.uk. New updates on the situation will be published on the website at <http://lib.gsa.ac.uk/update-on-fire-affected-library-services/>
